San Franciscans: Enroll now for Fall 2017

Last November, SF voters made history when they decided to make City College FREE again by passing a tax on luxury property sales over $5 million. Starting this Fall 2017, our City College of San Francisco is free for all SF residents!

Our community fought and won this victory to keep our beloved City College affordable and accessible to ALL San Franciscans.

Online enrollment has already begun. In-person enrollment starts August 7, 2017.

Free City College will:

- Cover Fall and Spring semester in-state tuition for residents with a San Francisco address who have lived in California for at least one year and one day. Free City also covers in-state tuition for homeless and foster youth and for those qualifying under AB540, AB13, and AB2000.

- Eligible Free City participants will receive extra financial assistance of $100-$250 per semester for books and transportation costs.
- Serve a diverse range of students with more educational access—from traditional college-age students to immigrants, people of color, low income folks, their neighbors, parents, and grandparents!
