1. Call to Order
2. Land acknowledgement
3. Meeting process and agreements discussed.
4. m/s/p Approval of Agenda.
5. Layoffs status updates: Final layoff notices have been sent, with some reappointments in process for summer and fall. The District has not committed to following the law and we must be prepared to fight back.
6. Strategic Campaigns, Building on Momentum, & Strike Readiness Organizers presented: an analysis of the Camp Conlon actions and arrests; review of organizing activities over the past year; and analysis of our strike readiness and latest structure test. Upcoming goals are to gather signatures to get a revenue measure on the November ballot and identify candidates to run as a labor-endorsed slate for Board of Trustees seats. Members went into breakout rooms to discuss: how to engage students, faculty and community in this signature gathering process; what else we should be thinking about to ensure this works; events to target; how to get 90% of members filling up at least 1 page of registered voters.
