1. Call to order
2. Land acknowledgement.
3. Review of meeting conduct agreements and process.
4. m/s/p Approval of Agenda as amended.
5. Officers’ reports <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • President: Relationship of FTE budgets to layoffs and overall impact on the college. • Vice-President: Upcoming actions on March 15 to protest layoff notices will include labor allies, students, and statewide affiliate representation. • Treasurer: Update on revenue and expenses. • Secretary: Working on collaboration to create graphics for upcoming campaigns.
6. m/s/p Ratify email vote: a. AFT 2121 endorses the "Unspooling FCMAT" document and agrees to include our name on the document, as well as distribute it to members. (8 yes, 0 no, 2 abstain; 2/16/22)
7. Plan to win / Campaign development Review and assessment of recent structure test and delivery of printed protest cards to trustees. At the 3/2/22 Special General Membership Meeting, members expressed interest in having actions on March 15 to protest the anticipated 50 layoff notices that will be issued to full time faculty; organizers have worked intensely since that meeting to plan for an in-person rally in front of Conlan Hall and a virtual press conference. Will be launching a new structure test soon involving one minute video stories.
8. Leadership development Spencer discussed the differences between Advocacy, Mobilizing and Organizing in the context of how to recruit and train more leaders in our union. The Organizing Team has created a “Leader Ladder” to illustrate the process of bringing new leaders into the upcoming campaign for added one-on-one outreach. Each board member was asked to identify a department where they will recruit new leaders and to commit to connecting

with at least two individual members about expanding their leadership roles before the next Exec Board meeting.
9. Operational expenses Based on declining dues revenue, Alayna has undertaken a project to examine union expenses and identify areas not critical to the functioning of the organization. The results were detailed in an Operational Redesign Report. The largest non-critical area identified was related to office expenses and the physical office space at 311 Miramar. m/s/p Direct the Executive Director to pursue closing the physical office space at 311 Miramar and adopt recommendations in the Operational Redesign Report, including securing a physical space as soon as feasible. (1 abstention)
10. Funding request: Student scholarships m/s/p Support student scholarships in the amount of $4,000 for two $1,000 scholarships each for students in the Latin American & Latino/a Studies and African American Studies programs. $2,000 had previously been allocated and unspent for two $1,000 scholarships for students in the Labor and Community Studies program, and is still available for award.
11. Adjourn to closed session: Discussion of personnel issues/Organizer contract for FY22/23. m/s/p Extend Internal Organizer contract for 6 months and revisit making the position permanent at the August Executive Board meeting.
12. Adjourned 5:50 p.m.
