

James Tracy

I am an adjunct instructor in the Labor and Community Studies Department and the Political Director of AFT 2121. I was the co-chair of the Free City campaign and bring three decades of advocacy and organizing experience to my union work. I am one of the co-creators of the Community Higher Education Fund, and look forward to winning this vital campaign this Fall. I am equity based and believe in strengthening solidarity between CCSF workers and students.
