I am a City College student. What does a fair faculty contract mean for me?

Faculty are struggling for the City College that San Francisco deserves. Faculty are struggling for the City College that San Francisco deserves, as We've seen how years of ACCIC and state imposed austerity has caused.

We've seen how years of ACCIC and state imposed austerity has caused and state imposed austerity has caused. we've seen now years or Augu and state imposed austerity has caused a collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer San Franciscans are given of collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san increase in student enrollment, which means fewer san Franciscans are given the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san Franciscans are given to the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san Franciscans are given to the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san Franciscans are given to the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san Franciscans are given to the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san Franciscans are given to the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san Franciscans are given to the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san franciscans are given to the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san franciscans are given to the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san franciscans are given to the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san franciscans are given to the collapse in student enrollment, which means fewer san franciscans are given to the collapse in the co courage in student enroument, which means rewer san Franciscans are get ting quality, affordable education at City College.
